JOURNAL OF ACCOUNTING EDUCATION
CONTENTS
VOLUME 11, 1993

VOLUME 11, NUMBER 1 SPRING 1993

Ad Hoc Reviewers iii

Main Articles

Knowledge and the Academic Accountant: An Empirical Study – Reva Berman Brown and Chris Guilding 1

Accounting Curriculum Responses to the 150-Hour Requirement – Richard J. Schmidt 15

Research, Teaching, and Service in Promotion and Tenure Decisions of Accounting Faculty – Donna L. Street, Charles P. Baril, and Ralph L. Benke, Jr. 43

Management Accounting: Are New Techniques Making In-Roads with Practitioners? – Joseph Z. Szendi and Robert C. Elmore 61

Ethics and Professionalism in Accounting Education: A Sample Course – Mary Beth Armstrong 77

Concerns About the Generalizability of Results of the AECC Grant Program – Steven M. Mintz 93

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): An Emerging Challenge to Accounting Education – Thomas D. McLaughlin and Edwin A. Doty, Jr. 101

Constructing Monte Carlo Simulations in Lotus 1-2-3 – Paul Rouse 113

Teaching and Educational Notes

The Setting of Accounting Standards in the United States: A Historical Perspective – Christine Zavgren and Leslie Weisenfeld 133

Case

Home Builders Asociation vs. St. Louis County Water Company: A Cost Allocation Case – Michael L. Costigan and Maurice L. Hirsch, Jr. 151

Beta Alpha Psi 1992 First Place Graduate Manuscript

Harmonization of International Accounting Standards: Is It Possible? – Valerie Sutton 177

VOLUME 11, NUMBER 2 FALL 1993

Ad Hoc Reviewers iii

Main Articles

Can Ethics be Taught in Accounting? – Lawrence A. Ponemon 185

Accounting Student Characteristics: Results of the 1992 Federation of Schools of Accountancy (FSA) Survey – O. Finley Graves, Irv Tom Nelson, and Dan S. Deines 211

An Investigation of How Incorrect Examples Can Enhance Tax Rule Comprehension – Peggy A. Hite and Robert W. Parry, Jr. 227

Ethics Education in Accounting: An Investigation of the Importance of Ethics as a Factor in the Recruiting Decisions of Public Accounting Firms – Nasrollah Ahadiat and James Jay Mackie 243

The Use of Historical Analysis to Provide Alternatives to Authoritative Justifications of Accounting Standards: A Focus on Stock Dividends – James J. Tucker, III 259

Adopting Commercial Software in the Accounting Classroom: A Focus on Learning – Nancy A. Bagranoff 275

A Response to "Measuring Readability: A Comparison of Accounting Textbooks" – Kathleen C. Stevens, Kevin T. Stevens, and William P. Stevens 287

Teaching and Educational Notes

Classroom Assessment Techniques (CATs): Tools for Improving Accounting Education – Victoria Beard 293

Case Section

The Stockholders' Equity Section of a Japanese Company: The Minolta Camera Company Case – Peter M. Bergevin 301

Beta Alpha Psi 1993 First Place Undergraduate Manuscript

Off-Balance Sheet Risks: What are They and Why is Their Disclosure Important? – Edward R. Morrison 313

Volume 11 Contents and Author Index I